

Eight weeks to fill the 120 — week by week.

The summer go-to-market sprint in full detail: every marketing activity, every week, and how each one delivers 200 interested families and 48–55 refundable $250 deposits by September 1 — so September fills the calendar on its own, and all 120 seats are committed by September 30.

Shared so The Notable Group can propose where its capabilities compound the plan.

What The 120 is

A selective network of Toronto's 120 best and brightest students, grades 3–8, in five groups — Scholars, Athletes, Makers, Founders, Givers. Members keep their current school; The 120 is what school can't give them.

01

The Network

A Tin Can and The 120 Address Book — a screen-free bat phone to 119 true intellectual peers across the city, plus in-person gatherings all year.

02

The Project

One super-interesting, year-long project per member — mentored, shipped, and demoed live at quarterly Toronto intensives. First one: Oct 31–Nov 1.

03

The Subject

Super advanced in 1–2 academic subjects on the GT / TimeBack platform — mastery-based, no ceiling, with a weekly 1:1 academic advisor.

CONSENTED FAMILIES BY SEPT 1

CASL-consented emails in the system — accounts, info-session RSVPs, opt-ins. One number the whole funnel hangs off: ~29 new families a week for 7 active weeks.

48–55

$250 DEPOSITS BY SEPT 1

Paid on live Stripe, verified. Real committed seats — and a truthful live seat count that powers the September urgency push.

120

SEATS COMMITTED BY SEPT 30

The hard goal: all 120 seats (113 open today) committed, with a waitlist behind them. September's nurture machine closes the last ~60.

“$250, fully refundable until Sept 30. The only thing you can lose is the seat.”

The math that fills the seats

REALITY CHECKS

29 leads/week — 200 over 7 active weeks.
10 calls/week — 2 a day, sustainable solo.
48-55 deposits leaves ~60 September seats — fed by nurture, evangelist parents, back-to-school urgency.

THE TRIPWIRE

Any stage running 30% under plan for two weeks becomes the next week's primary push — regardless of plan.

WEEK-1 BLOCKERS: STRIPE IS TEST-MODE · NO BOOKING LINK · NO EMAIL PROVIDER. NO DEPOSIT CAN BE TAKEN UNTIL ALL THREE SHIP — WEEK 1 FIXES THEM.

Four phases. One verb each. One push per week.

CADENCE AND NAMED PHASES BORROWED FROM FOUNDERS.SCHOOL'S "YEAR IN DETAIL" — NEVER MORE THAN ONE PRIMARY PUSH PER WEEK

The one push: Machine online + the warm 25

THE WEEK'S WORK

- 01 Go live on the machine — Cal.com booking link created and wired to every Book-a-call button; Stripe moves from test mode to live keys with one real $250 charge/refund verified; email provider picked (Resend / Customer.io) and welcome email #1 wired.
- 02 Instrument attribution — dev ticket for a “How did you hear about us? / referral code” field on account creation, so every later channel is measurable from day one.
- 03 Message the 25 warmest contacts — UTS circles, the 7 founding families, /parents story families. Personal notes and coffees, never blasts.
- 04 Open the pipeline — 10 intro calls booked from the warm list before Sunday.

SHIPS THIS WEEK

One-page explainer PDF — five groups, $3,000 membership, refundable $250 deposit, Oct 31 intensive — plus welcome email #1.

WHY THIS WEEK
DELIVERS THE GOAL

Nothing in this plan can convert until this week ships: booking, payments and email are the rails every later week runs on — and the warm 25 seed the first 10 of the 90 calls the funnel needs.

The one push:

Recruit the kid ambassadors

THE WEEK'S WORK

- 01 Recruit 12–15 grade 7/8 ambassadors through the founder's kids' network and friends-of-friends — the most networked, most credible voices to other kids.
- 02 One 45-minute virtual kickoff with the kids plus a parent each; referral codes issued (AMB-FIRSTNAME, tracked in the how-did-you-hear field).
- 03 Soft-launch the Gauntlet Summer Tournament to ambassadors only — seed the leaderboard before it opens to the public in Week 4.
- 04 Compound the warm network — ask each of Week 1's warm families for two introductions.

SHIPS THIS WEEK

Ambassador kit — one-page “what you do,” referral code card, 3 shareable Gauntlet images, and a plain-language parent consent note.

WHY THIS WEEK
DELIVERS THE GOAL

The single biggest organic channel in the plan: 12–15 grade-7/8 kids × 3–5 genuinely interested families each = 40–70 of the 200 leads. Kids are the engine, not the audience.

The one push:

Gifted-parent communities

THE WEEK'S WORK

- 01 Value-first founder posts — the real TimeBack story from /parents, real data, real kids — in Ontario gifted/enrichment Facebook groups and ABC (Association for Bright Children) Ontario chapters.
- 02 Earn, never blast — no cold links in no-promo groups; answer questions in-thread and DM the explainer PDF on request.
- 03 Show up where GTA parents ask — Reddit r/askTO and r/ontario parenting threads, same value-first rules.
- 04 Three “120 coffees” with connector parents — school-council chairs, camp directors — each one ends with an ask for two introductions.

SHIPS THIS WEEK

/parents story post — a 300-word founder narrative, no hype, link at the end — plus 5 canned answers to the most common objections.

WHY THIS WEEK
DELIVERS THE GOAL

These communities are exactly the top-1–2% parent, already searching for this — the lowest-cost lead source in the plan, and the one that keeps the 29-leads-a-week rate on track.

The one push: The Gauntlet goes public

THE WEEK'S WORK

- 01 Open the Gauntlet Summer Tournament to everyone — a 3-week public leaderboard sprint, grade bands 3–4 / 5–6 / 7–8, weekly “boss week” themes.
- 02 Make winning matter — winners earn a named spot on a permanent Founding Leaderboard plus the first demo slot at the October intensive.
- 03 Put the kids to work — ambassadors challenge classmates with their codes; parents share scores (“free math game a Toronto founder built”).
- 04 Ship the funnel surface — /gauntlet landing with a parent-facing banner into the join flow; dev ticket for an auto-generated shareable score card.

WHY THIS WEEK
DELIVERS THE GOAL

The only channel where the product markets itself to the actual member — kids recruit kids while parents see a serious math trainer. And the first 15 deposits prove the funnel end to end.

The one push: Five-group verticals

THE WEEK'S WORK

- 01 Scholars — CEMC/Waterloo contest and Math Kangaroo parent communities, math-circle coaches: the Gauntlet as free FastMath training, The 120 as the year-round home.
- 02 Athletes — rep/AAA team parent reps (GTHL, rep soccer, competitive swim): “your kid already trains like a pro at sport — this is that, for everything else.”
- 03 Makers · Founders · Givers — arts-program lists (RCM, youth film/maker camps); kid-entrepreneur fairs and DECA-adjacent parents; youth-volunteering and faith/community orgs.
- 04 CASL-clean distribution — coaches and organizers forward to their own lists; we never blast them. Their consent relationship, not ours.

SHIPS THIS WEEK

Five one-page group sheets — same skeleton, one hero line each (e.g. “Train seriously, compete seriously, and think like a pro”).

WHY THIS WEEK

Athletes, Makers, Founders and Givers seats will never fill from math channels. One tailored outreach per group balances the five groups — so all 120 seats fill, not just Scholars.

The one push: The deposit push

THE WEEK'S WORK

- 01 Ride the back-to-school moment — “before the school year swallows you, reserve the seat: $250, fully refundable until Sept 30.”
- 02 3-email sequence to every non-depositor on the consented list; SMS only where expressly consented.
- 03 Personal founder call to every submitted-dossier family without a deposit.
- 04 Truthful scarcity — live seat count published in every email; families deposited by Sept 1 are named the Founding 120 at the October intensive.

WHY THIS WEEK
DELIVERS THE GOAL

The conversion week: back-to-school urgency meets zero risk. The whole pipeline built over six weeks gets one honest, high-pressure-free reason to commit now — and the deposit count nearly doubles.

The one push: September landing

THE WEEK'S WORK

- 01 Verify the nurture automation end-to-end — five trigger sequences (account created, dossier submitted, call held/no deposit, deposit paid, stalled 14 days), every email ending on one CTA: book the call or finish the dossier.
- 02 Send ambassadors back to school armed — kits delivered, codes live, a September Gauntlet season announced.
- 03 Set the September table — waitlist copy ready, founder's calendar open at 12 call slots/week through October, weekly-metrics dashboard reviewed.
- 04 Send “the year begins” — intensive #1 dates (Oct 31–Nov 1) and what happens next, to the whole consented list.

WHY THIS WEEK
DELIVERS THE GOAL

The handoff week: the sprint becomes a machine. Nurture fills the calendar on its own, ambassadors carry it into schools, and September inherits 20+ pre-booked calls to close the last ~60 seats by Sept 30.

GENUINELY INTERESTED FAMILIES EACH

WHAT AMBASSADORS DO

- 01 Challenge friends to the Gauntlet — their referral code rides on every shared score card.
- 02 Bring one family to an info session — or to the August in-person Toronto meetup.
- 03 Give a 2-minute “why I’m in” — kid voice sells better than any deck, at every info session.
- 04 Show off the Tin Can — the bat phone is a physical, enviable object friends ask about.

INCENTIVES — RECOGNITION, NEVER CASH

Founding Ambassador title (named in the Address Book, badge at the intensive) · Gauntlet glory (permanent leaderboard flair, early boss access) · Intensive perks (first demo slot, ambassador table) · milestone shout-outs, never per-head bounties.

September 1 — definition of done

200+ consented families in the email system, tagged by stage and source.
- ✓

48+ deposits paid on live Stripe, verified — seat count showing ~58–65 left.

Booking link open 12 slots/week through October; 20+ September calls booked.
- ✓

Automated nurture running so the calendar fills itself (sequences below).
- ✓

12–15 ambassadors in school with kits, codes, and a September Gauntlet season.
- ✓

Intensive #1 sellable Oct 31–Nov 1 date and city in all copy; venue locked.

Waitlist mechanics ready copy, form and admin flow for when groups fill — Scholars will likely cap first.

THE CALENDAR-FILLING MACHINE — EVERY EMAIL ENDS ON ONE CTA: BOOK THE CALL OR FINISH THE DOSSIER
ACCOUNT CREATED	DOSSIER SUBMITTED	CALL, NO DEPOSIT	DEPOSIT PAID	STALLED 14 DAYS
welcome → dossier nudge → founder story → book the call	confirmation + booking → what review looks for → founder note	recap + deposit link → live seat count → final personal email	welcome to the Founding 120 → intensive details → referral ask	one re-engagement email, then monthly digest only

SEPTEMBER RUNS ITSELF: LABOUR-DAY “SCHOOL JUST REMINDED YOU WHY” EMAIL · MID-SEPT REFUNDABILITY COUNTDOWN (WINDOW CLOSES SEPT 30) · EVERY DEPOSITED FAMILY ASKED FOR ONE INTRODUCTION

Where would Notable compound this?

The plan is built to run on a solo founder's ~20 hours a week — and it will run regardless. What we want from The Notable Group is a proposal: across these eight weeks, where would your capabilities make the plan meaningfully bigger, faster, or louder than one founder can?

01

Awareness & PR

A Toronto founder story with real data, a $250 risk-reversal hook, and an Oct 31 demo-day moment — what earns coverage?

02

Social & digital

The Gauntlet tournament, share cards, and /parents stories — what turns organic mechanics into reach?

03

Community & influencer

Gifted-parent groups, coaches, connector parents — who amplifies credibly without breaking the value-first rules?

04

Experiential

Info sessions, the August meetup, the Oct 31–Nov 1 intensive — what makes them unmissable?

TIMING: THE SPRINT WENT LIVE JULY 13 — WEEK 1 IS ALREADY IN FLIGHT. EVERY WEEK EARLIER YOU'RE IN, THE MORE THE WORK COMPOUNDS.
